

Tamarac Beach Pavilion Reservation

Process Overview

The process described below allows TLA to accommodate as many residents as possible while streamlining the reservation process. The selection process is modeled after the lottery type system used in National Parks.

Pavilion Reservation Information:

- To reserve the beach pavilion, you must be a TLA dues paying member in good standing.
- For the open summer season, the first day the pavilion can be reserved is the Tuesday after Memorial Day and the last day to reserve the pavilion is the Thursday prior to Labor Day Weekend.
- The reservation is for the pavilion only and does not give exclusive rights to the beach.
- No reservations are available on:
 - Memorial Day Weekend (Fri-Mon)
 - Labor Day Weekend (Fri-Mon)
 - July 4th Weekend (Fri-Mon)
 - Any date a TLA event is occurring (check the Tidbits for published event dates)
- Only one reservation will be set per day.

Directions to Reserve the Pavilion:

 - a. List up to five dates for your event in priority order.

2. Read and complete the Indemnity and Hold Harmless Agreement (legal waiver).
3. Fill out a check in the amount of $75.00 made payable to TLA for a refundable deposit.
4. Drop off an envelope containing the Pavilion Reservation Agreement, Indemnity and Hold Harmless Agreement and refundable deposit to Lindsay Smith between April 1st and April 15th.

Lottery and Confirmation of Dates:

1. The lottery will take place on April 16th. You will be emailed the location and time of the lottery. It will either be at the pavilion or via Google Meet. All are welcome to attend, but it is not necessary.
2. Residents will receive confirmation of their events by April 19th (in the event a resident was unable to secure the pavilion through the lottery, their check will be returned).
3. Additional requests to reserve the pavilion will be accepted on a first come, first served basis starting on May 1st, subject to availability.
